Cleaning and Support Services Training

Babcock International Group delivers various nationally-designed qualifications which help with staff development: enhancing existing skills, improving communication and enabling self-development through a combination of training and assessment.

This qualification is for those working in a range of locations including offices, schools, hospitals, factories, accommodation, transport and outdoors.

It assesses a range of skills including cleaning building interiors, windows, glass and façade surfaces, caring for carpets and soft furnishings, cleaning within food premises, and maintaining hygiene and health and safety.
